

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

The Manchester Police May Challenge Richmond Shots.

THE FREE BRIDGE MATTER

It Will Have Bearing On Annexation—Rev. J. B. Cooke Takes Charge.

Manchester Bureau, (Times-Dispatch.) No. 1102 Hill Street. In all probability a challenge will be sent to the First Police Station next week from four of the Manchester officers who are of the opinion that they are the best marksmen of the two cities. Any four officers in Richmond will be permitted to engage in the practice which may be held in Manchester or Richmond. Chief of Police Lipscomb, one of the best pistol shots in this city or Richmond, will be among the four from Manchester. He will have with him Sergeant Wright and Officers Moore and Waymank. These four are believed to be prize winners, and the Richmond officers will certainly have to do some fancy shooting to carry off the honor.

Touchees Annexation.

Until the Free Bridge proposition has been definitely settled, and it is known beyond a doubt that the citizens of this side of the river are to receive this benefit, it may be stated upon authority that there will be no vote taken on the annexation of Manchester to Richmond. The sentiment of the Manchesterians appears to be in favor of the Free Bridge, and the Mayor and the city council purchase is looked forward to with a good deal of expectation.

Pastor Takes Charge.

An especially beautiful programme was rendered at Clifton Street Baptist Church yesterday, when Rev. J. B. Cooke, the new pastor, assumed his duties. Rev. Cooke succeeded Rev. W. J. B. Cooke, who has been in charge of the church, which has a large congregation and is in a good financial condition. The services were opened with a hymn by the choir and Scripture reading by Rev. R. W. Criddle. Rev. E. V. Baily, pastor of Balmbridge Street Baptist Church, presided. Dr. J. G. Loving, of Swansboro, delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the church and on behalf of the Baptists of Richmond and Manchester. Rev. C. S. Gardner, of Richmond, delivered the address. Rev. J. T. Routten, of West End Methodist, delivered the address on behalf of the denominations of the city.

John Carter Jailed.

John Carter, a negro well known to the police of Manchester, was arrested yesterday by Officer Moore upon a charge of being a suspicious character. Carter was locked up and will be given a preliminary hearing this morning.

Wouldn't Move On.

Five young men were arrested by Sergeant Wright last night and ordered to appear in the Police Court this morning to answer a charge of being disorderly on the street. They were congregated at the corner of Ninth and Hull Streets and complaint was registered to the police. Sergeant Wright warned the crowd that they could not congregate there and several of the wiser ones immediately left. Five remained and as a consequence of their act will have to explain to Mayor Maurice this morning.

GEO. B. MCCLELLAN FOR PRESIDENT

Looks Now As Though He May Be the Most Available Democrat.

HE MUST BE RE-ELECTED

And Then Succeed in Carrying His State for the Governorship.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., October 15.—Mayor George B. McClellan, of New York, told a Virginia member of Congress six years ago that he would receive the Tammany nomination to the mayoralty in the fall of 1903, that he would accept it, and would be elected; that he would receive the Democratic nomination to the Governorship of New York, that he would accept, and hoped to be elected, and that in 1905 he would be nominated by the Democrats to the Presidency. Of course, he said he would accept the nomination.

Will Be Re-elected.

Mr. McClellan has been twice nominated to the majority of New York, elected once and will be elected this fall without opposition worthy of the name. It looks now as though he would be the Democratic gubernatorial candidate next year, and there is practical certainty that he will be elected. The Democratic nomination to the Governorship would have been successful last year had it not been for the phenomenal Roosevelt tidal wave.

If Mr. McClellan is Governor of New York when the National Democratic National Convention assembles, he will be, so far as human eye can see, the strongest man before the convention. He has not the general reputation for political shrewdness which he deserves. Those who know him well know he is far above the average of politicians in this respect. There has never been a breath of suspicion concerning his private or public character, save that resulting from his signing the gas-grab bill in New York over a year ago.

His Excuse.

In excuse of his not he said he knew Governor Odell would veto the measure, but this was not regarded as worthy of the Mayor of a great city. Of course, Mr. McClellan's Tammany connections will be urged as reasons why he should not be the Presidential nominee, but there is no doubt he will be a good one for the term for which he is about to be elected as he has been during the term just ending.

ION PERDICARIS HAS COME TO WASHINGTON

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., October 15.—Winfield Scott Hancock, forty-three years old, a nephew of the late General Winfield Scott, has arrived in Washington, Md., near here, late last night, charged with the murder of Emma Smallwood, a young white woman, employed as a domestic in the Hancock household, who died as the result of a criminal operation. Hancock declared any girl who declares that a woman left his home on Monday, but returned on Thursday and died that night.
